

A pronoun is a word that replaces a noun; for example, he, she, it, they, and I are pronouns

WARMUP: copy the sentence below; underline the pronouns.

Jack and Jill went up the hill. He fell down; she came tumbling after. They should have been more careful, because it was steep.

Jack and Jill went up the hill. He fell down; she came tumbling after. They should have been more careful, because it was steep.