

December 9, 2008

TFC: Sentence correction -- see next slide

Learning targets:

- Read "A Christmas Carol" scenes 2 and 3
- See model compare/contrast extended response item
- Answer item number 2 on page 232 on your Cornell Notes page

OC: vocab lessons 9 & 10; Holiday Project

Copy and correct these sentences.

In the story, the symbol is a rose. he takes the rose because he wants to remember her

In "a retrieved reformation," the symbol is a rose because Jimmy wants to remember her, he takes the rose.

Dec 5-2:28 PM

Dec 9-6:40 AM

subordinating conjunction

In "A Retrieved Reformation," the symbol is a rose. When Jimmy believes he's going to prison, he asks Annabell for her rose as a symbol of their love.

dependent clause

independent clause

Model extended response writing
Compare and Contrast

Compare and contrast Fred and Cratchit.

Fred and Cratchit, characters in "A Christmas Carol," can be compared and contrasted. Cratchit is similar to Fred because both love Christmas. Fred is different from Cratchit, because Fred has money and Cratchit is poor.

Dec 9-6:47 AM

Dec 5-2:52 PM